DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-18, 37-64 and 93-97, drawn to a product in the form of a sterilization wrap, classified in class 422, subclass 294.
 - II. Claims 19-36, 65-92 and 98-103, drawn to a process of use of product described by Group I for sterilizing an article, classified in class 422, subclass 28.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the product of Invention I as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product, namely the sterilization can be carried out by first applying sterilant to an article before wrapping the article in a sterilization wrap to keep the item from contamination or the sterilization may be carried out through use of other sterilizing means such as heat and UV radiation.

Art Unit: 1744

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. If either of the Group is elected, this application further contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- Specie A directed toward the invention disclosed in Figures 2-8,
- Specie B directed toward the invention disclosed in Figures 9-10, and
- Specie C directed toward the invention disclosed in Figures 11-12.

The species are independent or distinct because Specie A is directed to a sterilization wrap containing at least one sheet of sterilization material and an absorbent layer, Specie B is directed to a different embodiment of a sterilization wrap containing at least one sheet of sterilization material and a reinforcement panel made of SMS, whereas Specie C is directed to a sterilization wrap with at least two sheets of sterilization wrap containing both SMS and absorbent materials, a combination of previous two species.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there is not a generic claim.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

5. A telephone call was made to David Carter on December 12, 2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
